Leonie Minty LRAM, BMus, DipABRSM has performed across the UK and abroad, both as a soloist and orchestral musician. Leonie studied music at King's College London, where she was principal flute of the KCL Chamber Orchestra. She was recently awarded an LRAM from the Royal Academy of Music where she studied flute with Kate Hill. Locally, Leonie has played with the Shrewsbury Symphony Orchestra, Ludlow Symphony Orchestra and Orchestra of the Severn. Professionally, she is a Director of R&W (a venue technologies company) whilst also pursuing her music as a freelance musician and flute teacher in Shropshire. She also helps run The National Youth Wind Orchestra of Great Britain.

Richard Walker moved to Shropshire in 2005, having been Director of Music at Harrow School for the previous 20 years. He is Assistant Director of Music at St Chad's, where he organises these concerts and accompanies most of the major services.. He is conductor of the Phoenix Singers of Shrewsbury and is involved in chamber music in the area; he also plays double bass in the Ludlow and Shrewsbury Orchestras. Richard studied music at Cambridge University, and his teaching career began in Edinburgh, followed by five years at the Leys School, Cambridge before his final destination at Harrow School.

Next week: Piano recital by Tim Smith
