Galina Vale - guitar virtuoso: never afraid of controversy, Galina has become a unique personality of the international guitar world. Her individualistic performances combine a charismatic stage presence and dynamic powerful playing style with an unusually wide ranging and technically demanding repertoire; including flamenco, arrangements of Latin American and East European world music, and jazz/flamenco/classical crossover.

A child prodigy raised in a family of musicians, Galina's performing career began at the age of eight with an appearance on Ukrainian State Television. Performed over 2000 concerts around the world she was named as an Ambassador of the International Guitar Festival of Great Britain.

"A breath of fresh air, she is a musical actress..."
