

St Alkmund's Church, Shrewsbury

(Events Celebrating 1100 years & Building Restoration)

Exhibitions

The History of the Building and Shropshire Historic Churches (on display in the Church)

Contribution to Heritage Open Day (Saturday September 8th)

11.00 'From Ruin to Revival—Saving of St Alkmund's': Rev Richard Hayes (Resident Priest)

11.45 'The Georgian Group—75 Years': James Darwin (Senior Case Worker for the Georgian Group)

14.00 Architectural Visit to St Chad's Church

19.30 Evening Concert: Bingham String Quartet

Evening Talks

October 11th, 19.30: '10th Century Shrewsbury': Nigel Baker, (Urban Archaeologist and author of 'Shrewsbury, An archaeological assessment of an English border town')

October 25th, 19.20: 'The Architecture of St Alkmund's': Andrew Arrol (Church Architect and Senior Partner, Arrol and Snell, Architects)

All events will take place in St Alkmund's Church, St Alkmund's Square, Shrewsbury. Admission is free but donations for building maintenance are welcome